All--

As I've mentioned, my colleague, Melissa Rada, and I have been working to summarize the individual public comments into some larger overarching summary comments we will be able to respond to. So far, we've gotten through everything but ag (see attached). As we discuss each topic in more detail, we may need to add to or revise what we have so far but this should be a good starting point. We welcome any additional feedback folks have and will share the ag summary comments when done.
